

Next Steps

Following on from this training, please write down two steps that you plan to take in order to make your service more inclusive of disabled people.

One should be a short-term small step: something that you could achieve quickly and with little cost or effort.

The other should be longer term big step: something that will make a big difference that you can work towards over a longer period of time.

Small Step:

Big Step: