

Responding to Domestic Abuse COVID-19 Briefing

The COVID-19 outbreak brings new challenges for people who are living through domestic abuse. Victim/Survivors who are self-isolating may not be able to access support or escape abuse at times when they otherwise would. Self-isolating while living with an abuser may also see an increase of risk of harm. However, support is available.

This briefing provides an overview of support that is available to victims and survivors during this difficult period across the Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham, the Royal Borough of Kensington & Chelsea and the City of Westminster.

Please find information relating to the following:

1. Support from the Police
2. Support from Domestic Abuse Services
3. Housing Support
4. Support from Family and Children's Services
5. Support from Adult Safeguarding Services
6. Supporting Staff and Colleagues

1. Support from the Police:

All support from the Police is continuing as normal. There are steps the police can take to remove an abuser from the home if someone is at risk. In an emergency, please always call 999. For non-emergency support, the 101 number can be dialled. There are safeguarding teams and specialist investigators on duty 24/7 for advice and help. It is recognised that attending police stations may not be practical however if you prefer the safety of your local police station, they remain open.

2. Support from Domestic Abuse Services:

- The Angelou Partnership:

The Angelou Partnership is the support service for the three boroughs. It consists of a partnership of 10 specialist services with one front door to contact support.

Angelou can provide support if you have been subjected to domestic abuse, sexual violence, stalking, forced marriage, so called honour-based violence, female genital mutilation and child exploitation. It provides specialist support to the Black, Minority and Ethnic and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender communities.

Angelou support is moving from face-to-face sessions to telephone and online based support. please contact the numbers below for support and details of service provision.

To contact Angelou:

- Hestia’s Bright Sky App:

Bright Sky is a free to download mobile app providing support and information to anyone who may be in an abusive relationship (displays as a weather app). It has a secure journal tool to record behaviour via text, audio, video or photo, without the content being stored on the device. <https://www.hestia.org/brightsky>

- Multi-Agency Risk Assessment Conferences (MARACs):

MARACs are victim focused information sharing and risk management meetings attended by key agencies to safety plan for people who are at high risk of harm. MARAC meetings will move from face-to-face meetings to alternative arrangements to ensure safety is maintained and risk managed. Standing Together oversee our MARACs. To speak to someone about any changes, please email the MARAC Team at MARAC@standingtogether.org.uk

- Surviving Economic Abuse (SEA):

SEA have put together a helpful resource which provides an overview of support available to anyone who is experiencing economic abuse. Economic abuse is when an abuser may restrict how their partner acquires, uses and maintains money and economic resources, such as accommodation, food, clothing and transportation.

The resource is designed to your economic wellbeing and safety. It also contains information on financial support that is available.
